

MRS. NINA FORMBY MAKES AFFIDAVIT TO ASSIST FRANK

Understood That Defense Has Paper Signed by Her in Which She Repudiates Affidavit Given Police.

CHARACTER WITNESSES MAY CHANGE TESTIMONY

Reported Defense May Make Attack Upon Detective Rosser, Who Secured Evidence Against Frank.

Another interesting development in the Frank case came to light Sunday when it became known that attorneys for the defense have obtained from Mrs. Nina Formby an affidavit reported to accuse detectives and the police of inveigling her into a "frame-up" against Frank shortly before his trial.

A member of the counsel for the defense stated that the affidavit was obtained, but that he did not know its exact details. He declared it would be of aid to the defense, as it would create astonishment upon being made public. Rumors were that she accused the police department and detective Rosser.

Character Affidavits. A number of affidavits from character witnesses, repudiating their testimony on the stand, is likewise reported to be in the hands of the defense. It is said that a number of girls and women who testified for the prosecution have repudiated their testimony and have furnished evidence that they were inveigled by the defense in its probable move to gain a new trial.

Attorney Luther Rosser, when communicated with by a Constitution reporter last night, declared that he had nothing whatever to say regarding the Formby affidavit or the others. He said that for his part, the defense would make no statement of any kind, and would rather drop the matter from the affidavit.

C. W. Burke, the private investigator attached to Rosser's office, who obtained the Albert McKnight affidavit which was published in the Sunday morning papers, in a letter to the reporter, declared that he declared her statement made to Chief Heaver, Detective Rosser and a number of detectives after several weeks previous to the trial, was false, and that she was coerced into it by detectives.

It is also reported that the defense has evidence attacking Detective Rosser, a headquarters detective, who has been assigned to the Mary Phagan murder since the body's discovery. Rosser, from the Monday morning papers, stated she visited the pencil factory at 12:05 o'clock on the day of the murder, and was found Frank absent from the office.

Is Rosser's Absent. It was further stated that an unearthing considerable evidence produced against the prisoner during trial. For the past several days, Rosser has been exclusively to the office of Solicitor General Dorsey.

Rumors are that Rosser will be charged with concealing evidence against Frank, and of being a party to the accused "frame-up" said to be alleged by the Formby woman. A number of affidavits, it is stated, are on hand to substantiate the reported charges against him.

Another rumor is to the effect that investigators for the defense are probing the report that the defense was given by the Frank jury at least forty minutes or more before their verdict was rendered in the courtroom, and that the nature of their decision was generally known in the court considerable while before they filed in for their announcement.

The defense will have nothing to say on this. A member of the counsel has said, however, that they had heard rumors that the jury had signaled its decision. The Formby woman's affidavit, made for Chief Lanford, Chief Heaver and Solicitor Dorsey, quite a while before the trial, but forth that she received a telephone call from Leo Frank at 10 o'clock on the day of the murder, and that he had frantically pleaded with her to permit him to secretly bring a girl to her house on Piedmont avenue.

Had Been to Her Place. She also stated that although Frank had been to her place repeatedly, she would not let him to visit again, and that she refused under the pressure of leaving her apartment at 1200 Piedmont avenue and Currier street for an automobile.

The affidavit attacked Frank's character. But little faith, however, was placed in it. She was sworn to testify. Her police record was bad, officials say, and she is well known as the keeper of a disreputable resort.

Her signature was put upon the affidavit in the office of Detective Chief Lanford, and in the presence of Chief Heaver, and Detective Rosser. The woman was in a hysterical condition, and she was home by detectives and Chief Heaver, Lanford and Detective Rosser.

Benjamin Arnold said to The Constitution last night that the defense would take no action at all in the trial of Jim Conner, who was charged with a charge of accessory after the fact in the murder of Detective Chief Heaver. "We have nothing to do with that," he stated.

It was further stated that the defense would make a vigorous effort to block the trial of the woman, and that she expected to take place some time this morning before Judge Ben Hill.

SHE'S MY DAUGHTER AND I WANTED HER, ASSERTS KIDNAPER

Edward Stuart Declares He Only Took His Own Child When He Abducted Little Catherine Winters.

PAPA DIDN'T STEAL ME, SAYS THE LITTLE GIRL

"She's My Own Flesh and Blood," Says Alleged Kidnaper—Case One of the Strangest on Record.

Huntsville, Ala., February 22.—Edward Stuart, under arrest here charged with the abduction of Catherine Winters, the child of Dr. W. A. Winters, of New Castle, Ind., today asserted that the child found in his custody is Catherine Winters, daughter of the man who is said to be the kidnaper of the child.

"I did not steal her," Stuart protested. "Her name is Catherine Winters. I wanted her."

"Papa did not steal me and my name is not Catherine. I'm twelve years old. The man who took me rode in an automobile. We rode and rode until we met a red wagon and then they took me."

Here the girl cut short her narrative. Late today Sheriff M. Hunter started with the child on a 10-mile overland trip through the mountains for the railroad station at Springdale, where they were taken to the home of Dr. W. A. Winters, who started south when advised of the detention of Stuart and the child here yesterday.

From Anger to Pleading. Stuart paced his cell today and while he was instructed to remain in the cell, he was heard to plead his innocence of the charge that the girl was his child.

"She is my own flesh and blood," he said. "I am not guilty of a crime and you have no right to take her from me. She is my own flesh and blood. I want her back."

Stuart, who says he is 55 years old, but looks older, declares that before her marriage to the Indiana physician, the child's mother was his wife; that she was his wife and he was her husband, and when she died several years after she was married to Dr. Winters, he was her father.

Stuart declared that he secured the child. How he accomplished this he will not tell, but he insists that he did not abduct her nor will he say in what city the orphanage is located.

Pleaded Not to Arrest. Declarations of relatives of Mrs. Winters that so far as they know she was not married before she became Mrs. Winters, repeated to Stuart brought no change in his story.

Pictures printed in a Fort Smith, Ark., newspaper, which reached this mountain hotel several days ago, led to the detention of the man and girl, traveling in a wagon with the child dressed as a boy and her hair "bobbed."

Stuart declared that they were en route back to Indiana, but for what purpose he will not state. They stopped at Huntsville, he says, "because it is an out of the way place."

The fact that it is an "out of the way" place was in a measure responsible for the arrest. Newcomers to the mountains are always a subject for comment and consequently pictures of the missing girl appeared in the papers which country folk spread Friday evening reading.

The Town Was Aroused. Early Sunday morning Stuart was arrested and before long a posse was organized, armed in anticipation of an encounter and headed for the camping place of the wagon.

John Barnes and Frank Morton took Stuart to the city jail, where he was held. The main body of the posse arrived. He offered no resistance and was taken to the town jail, where he was held. He was taken to the town jail, where he was held. He was taken to the town jail, where he was held.

PRETTY BRIDE WON BY MINISTER'S SON AFTER NIGHT'S RIDE

Savannah, Ga., February 22.—(Special.)—Morgan D. Alenworth, son of the Rev. Dr. W. N. Alenworth, pastor of the Mulberry Street Methodist church in Macon, eloped from Macon to Savannah with Miss Eleanor Porter, daughter of G. B. Porter, a wholesale grocer of Chatsworth. They were married last afternoon by the Rev. John S. Wilder.

Mr. Alenworth was 21. His bride is three years younger and prettier. They had considerable difficulty in securing a license after their arrival in Savannah. They had sat up all night in a day coach from Macon, and although tired from their journey, they searched all over the city for the ordinary clerk. Finally they learned he was at the law of Hoy, a suburb a mile from Savannah, and there they proceeded in an automobile. After securing the license they went back to Savannah as they were married.

"We just decided to get married," said young Alenworth. "We don't know whether our parents have any objection, but my father will tell me to run away with me. I want to go to Savannah and live with my father's friends. I was visiting at 2 o'clock this morning and found her waiting in a suit and hat."

President Takes Part in Celebration of Washing-

Washington, February 22.—President Wilson was the central figure today at a mass meeting in a downtown theater under the auspices of the Sons of the Revolution in commemoration of Washington's birthday. Joseph W. Folk, solicitor of the state department, in an address, paid tribute to the founder of the republic as a man "imperfect enough to be intensely human and near enough perfect to be an inspiration to all who honor justice and worship liberty."

who received the gold medal of the Sons of the Revolution for the best essay on the subject. The Greatest Event of the American Revolution? In accordance with a century-old custom, a salute from an ancient cannon on Suter's hill, in Alexandria, Va., across the Potomac, ushered in the observance of the day there, where a notable celebration is planned for tomorrow. President Wilson, Vice President Marshall, cabinet officers and other officials plan to go to the Virginia city to review a parade which will move past Washington's Masonic lodge room and Christ church, from which the Father of his Country was buried in 1799.

COMING OUT PARTY. GIVEN 5,000 ALIENS. Chicago, February 22.—This city gave a coming-out party to 5,000 aliens who have foregone their native lands and taken the oath of allegiance to the United States. The ceremony took place during the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, was decided by the most fitting time to celebrate the naturalization of the new citizens and the final oath of allegiance was administered at a public meeting today.

man citizenship among those naturalized took a leading part in the celebration. A warm and hearty reception was given them by the American people. The ceremony was presided over by the American consul, who said that the new citizens were the sons of the American people. The ceremony was held in the city of Chicago, where the new citizens were given a warm and hearty reception by the American people.

Several thousand school children celebrated the birth of a special meeting of the Chicago Historical society, and Washington services were held in many churches.

CITY PREACHERS NEED REVIVAL, SAYS SHULER

In the closing service of a revival which has been running in the East Side Tabernacle for the past two weeks, Pastor A. C. Shuler last night addressed the congregation on "Revival, the Need, and How to Have Them." Referring to Dr. W. M. McKim's sermon of a week ago on "The Need of a Pentecostal Revival," he declared it was the expression of a feeling that is becoming more and more general, and that it is a revival of the country, and not a revival of the city.

Wants the Children to Make Gardens of City Back Yards

Following closely upon the suggestion made at the meeting of the City Federation of Women's clubs Friday, when Councilman Ashby advised that the club women start a crusade to make back yards as perfect as front yards, come the word from that very constructive spirit, Miss Celeste Parrish, supervisor of rural schools in Georgia.

Relative to the work Miss Parrish stated:

"Back yard gardening is one of the revelations to modern city life. As an occupation for children, it has no equal. The exercise furnished by it brings into play every part of the body, and, since it must be done in the fresh air and sunshine, it includes many hygienic factors. It arouses a high order of interest, and it is a high order of moral way. If the children of Atlanta could be persuaded to undertake it, it would be a city analogue of the corn and garden club in the country, and it would be an economic asset for Atlanta and would do much to police many of the moral problems which now perplex us. For one thing, it would help to keep the children off the street, out of the harmful moving picture shows and in 'God's great outdoors'.

How to Succeed.
"With the co-operation of the teachers of every city school could be easily reached. With some of the interest and enthusiasm of our splendid chamber of commerce in the children, the success of this movement for the city children would be assured. There are, practically, no city lots too small for the work. One square lot, cultivated intensively, and planted with reference to constant succession, has been known to furnish a family of four or five with a variety of delicious vegetables. Vacant lots could be secured by the city, and the city would be the secure and profitable enterprise than the home lot would afford."

Miss Matthews to Organize.
Miss Beaufort Matthews, 425 Peachtree street, is interested in this work, and is anxious to serve the city children by stimulating the movement. She seems to be to be entirely fitted for the task, and it is a pleasure to have a woman in Atlanta, I estimate the various agencies for child welfare, and child welfare to give her their cordial support.

AUTOMOBILE DEALERS WILL MEET ON TUESDAY

The annual meeting and dinner of the Atlanta Automobile and Accessory Dealers Association will be held on Tuesday, February 24, at 6:30 o'clock, at the M. & M. club.

Selection of officers and appointment of important committees will take place. There will also be short speeches by prominent automobile men and others. The Georgia Automobile Dealers Association has called a mass meeting of all auto owners and others interested in the question of raising the license on cars all the way from $1 to $25, according to horsepower, such money to go toward building and maintaining good roads. It is very important that all members meet on Tuesday night and decide upon the action the association proposes to take, and appoint a committee to speak and uphold such action at the chamber of commerce meeting.

and also assist in laying out plans for the proposed building and maintenance of government and state highways.

The entertainment committee will provide something new in the way of entertainment.

At the morning services of Moore Memorial church Dr. A. R. Holderby entered his protest and that of his congregation against the appearance of Evelyn Thaw in Atlanta. His remarks were as follows:

"I see from the billboards that after all that has been said Evelyn Thaw will be allowed to play to an Atlanta audience during the present month. I do not wish to do this woman any harm, but I do desire to save Atlanta from disgrace. Evelyn Thaw ought to visit Atlanta or to make this her home, if she so desires, and she should be treated as a respectable citizen."

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED TODAY

Many Pastors Mentioned
Cath of "Father of the Country" in Sunday Sermons.

In officialdom, Washington's birthday falls today. Despite the fact that the actual date of the birth of the Father of the Country fell yesterday, to-day the banks, city and county offices, also the state and national departments, will take cognizance of the event.

Just as Atlanta begins to really appreciate that Washington's birthday has, from the calendar standpoint, passed, in far off Guam, on the Philippine archipelago, will be a first saluting the flag in honor of the event. The only object in bringing this point out is to show that the date may not fall exactly on the same hour the world round or even in Atlanta.

In fact, one good old mammy "her two years' freedom" will be with her on Sunday, when informed that the day was the one on which George Washington first saw light, that she was "powerful glad that was so, cause no one in her family ever could tell her just when her older brother had been born."

It seems that an older brother had been named George Washington, but the "book learning" on the part of the good old negroes had not included the life and history of the first president of these United States.

Today the banks will be closed. Ap-

DEMAND FOR CHILDREN GREATER THAN SUPPLY

With 15 Little Ones for Adoption,
Home Society Has 162
Applications on Hand.

"There is no cause for saying anymore that the childless home in Georgia is a rare sight," said Superintendent McCord of the Children's Home Society Sunday. "We have received in the last week 162 applications for homeless children to rear as own children in these homes. Some of these have come by telegraph and telephone, others have gotten right on the train and come themselves to see about it, while most of the applications have depended on the United States mail to carry the application. Some have wanted more than one, some have wanted a tiny infant, while others have wanted older children, up to 15 years of age."

The society has ready for placing in family homes right now not more than twelve or fifteen children, and therefore most of these homes can only be investigated and when approved put into the hands of each child as they wish when it comes into the hands of the association. The superintendent says that many of these homes will from all indications prove very valuable places for the children that are constantly coming under the care of the society.

The officers of the society are this week addressing a letter to each of the orphan asylums in the state telling them that the home society is ready to co-operate with them in placing any of their children who they desire to put into the best of these homes, they are applying to the society daily for child to rear, educate and love as an own child.

The society also plans to offer to supervise the children and make regular reports to the orphanage management concerning the welfare of the children they place from the institutions. "We believe in the welfare of the child," said Superintendent McCord, "and there is no reason why the orphanage should not trust us to do this phase of their work, and we are anxious to have the child employed by us in doing it."

With the encouragement of the best children homes in the state are giving the children a home and a place to care for to have the homeless children cared for in selected homes, there is no cause now for saying that any child in Georgia has no home. "The society can take only so many, however," said the superintendent, "that can be placed for permanent care, that is, until the child grows up and is able to place a child in a home today and let the foster parents learn to love it and begin to send their money on it and tomorrow come and take it away from them, some have been related to the society. The society always tries to find a suitable relative to take the child before it will place it in another home, but if no relative can be found, it will not remove it for the good of the child, or because those who take it do not want to keep it."

CONLEY WILL PLEAD "NOT GUILTY" TODAY

Negro, Held as Accessory After Fact in Phagan Case, Faces Trial.

On account of a late shift of plans, Solicitor General Dorsey will today, in the criminal division of the superior court, ask for the immediate trial of Jim Conley, held as accessory after the fact in the murder of Mary Phagan.

Conley's attorney, William M. Smith, will not allow his client, it is learned, to plead guilty to the two indictments now against him, believing that the negro's story in the Phagan trial does not bind him as an accessory to the murder, for the reason that Conley did not know, so he alleges, that he was disposing of the body of a dead woman in a "tunnel" or "cave" to the basement of the pencil factory.

Conley has vastly altered since his last appearance before the public. His hair is matted, his clothes ragged and his body all but filthy. It is not known whether or not he will be "groomed" for his appearance today, his attorney intimating that funds for Conley's upkeep are a trifle slim.

Conley probably will be brought from the "tower," where he has been kept practically uncommunicated since the Phagan trial to the Thawing building, as he is to be present when court opens at 10 o'clock.

Conley, on the first indictment of murder, he will be sent to the chain-gang in the division of the Thawing building, on the second indictment, that of aiding in the disposal of a dead body, he will be sent to the gang for one year.

The Miracle of Loaves and Dishes

THE women who have given so generously of their time and experience in preparing the Administration Home Cook Book are all distinctly home-makers and for their sensible, economical and effective advice, which will be of use to every woman in the land, they are entitled to a place of honor in the hearts of all who are interested in the welfare of the home.

THE keynote was sounded by President Wilson in Omaha during the last campaign when he declared "The nation's problems today are problems of the home, and by the same token they are women's problems." Later, Speaker Clark repeated the word in his opening speech at the first annual convention of the Women's National League in Washington, and the women within the sound of his voice got the harmony-thought of the day.

THE MIRACLE OF LOAVES AND DISHES

THE women who have given so generously of their time and experience in preparing the Administration Home Cook Book are all distinctly home-makers and for their sensible, economical and effective advice, which will be of use to every woman in the land, they are entitled to a place of honor in the hearts of all who are interested in the welfare of the home.

THE keynote was sounded by President Wilson in Omaha during the last campaign when he declared "The nation's problems today are problems of the home, and by the same token they are women's problems." Later, Speaker Clark repeated the word in his opening speech at the first annual convention of the Women's National League in Washington, and the women within the sound of his voice got the harmony-thought of the day.

SHIP SACHEM POUNDS THREE MASKED BANDITS ON THE VIRGINIA COAST

ON THE VIRGINIA COAST

British Vessel Is Ashore, and It Is Feared She Will Go to Pieces.

Norfolk, Va., February 22.—The British steamer Sachem, Captain Bragg, from Liverpool to Norfolk via Boston, went ashore during heavy weather early today 5 miles north of Hog Island, on the upper Virginia coast.

The ship first appeared to be in serious position. Life-rafts went to the assistance and stood by to take the crew off. The high seas, which caused the vessel to pound heavily after she struck, is reported to have subsided, and the Sachem is now afloat.

The revenue cutter Itasca has gone to the assistance of the steamer. The Sachem is bound to Norfolk from Boston to complete loading cargo. She is of 3,317 tons net, and carries a crew of twenty-four men. She is a freighter exclusively.

Liferafts of the Kill Devil life station today picked up nine life belts that were cast on the beach by the high seas now prevailing along the coast. The belts were marked "S. & C. California." There are several steamships of this name.

It is believed that the belts are old ones, and were probably thrown overboard from the steamer.

Schooner Itasca Returns.
Lewes, Del. February 22.—The five-masted tank schooner Itasca, seventy days out from Port Arthur, arrived here today, after having been detained under tow of the tug Atkins because of a leak in the boiler.

The schooner is leaking badly, and her sails are damaged.

The Itasca put to sea this morning with a full cargo of coal, but the leak in the boiler is so serious that she will have to return to port.

Last Wednesday the revenue cutter Osage went in to assist the schooner, which was reported in distress because of a leak in the boiler.

The Itasca is a five-masted schooner, built in 1880, and is now owned by the U. S. Navy.

POSTUM

and woman only

Postum is made of prime wheat and a small portion of Java-like flavour, but none of the drugs, "caffeine" and "tannin" destroyers.

If your own judgment leads to a trial of Postum, for, say, sleep soundly, digest food better, and your nerves get steady, will show

"There's a Reason" for

Postum now comes in two forms.

Regular Postum—must be well boiled. 15c and 25c pacs.

Instant Postum—soluble powder. A teaspoonful, stirred into water, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.
